

Lincoln Park has been a place where Albany residents and visitors, alike, have created many special memories.

Can you tell us your special story about Lincoln Park? Write an essay or a poem!

My name is (optional) _____ My age is (optional) _____

A series of horizontal green lines for writing, with a vertical green line on the left side. A small tree illustration is located at the bottom left corner of the writing area.

Did you know that Lincoln Park was Albany's first public park and playground?

(That was in the mid-1800s—quite a long time ago!) Today, Lincoln Park is a historic landmark in Albany, and many changes have occurred to the area. Can you write about some historic fact or urban legend about Lincoln Park?

My name is (optional) _____ My age is (optional) _____

A series of horizontal green lines for writing, with a vertical green margin line on the left side.

